The Honorable Matthew Lussenhop Acting Assistant Secretary Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

Dear Deputy Assistant Secretary Pak, Acting Assistant Secretary Brownlee, Acting Assistant Secretary Kang, and Acting Assistant Secretary Lussenhop,

On behalf of the undersigned higher education associations, I write regarding the application of Presidential Proclamation 10043, "Suspension of Entry as Nonimmigrants of Certain Students and Researchers from the People's Republic of China."

The proclamation was issued in June 2020, and applies to existing and new visas. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, new visas were largely not being processed at that time. That means we only saw the impact on existing visas, when more than 1,000 visas to Chinese graduate students were revoked. Now that consulates are starting to reopen in China, and international students are beginning to see visa processing resume, we have heard troubling reports of this proclamation being applied very broadly.

Colleges and universities fully support efforts by the federal government to identify and address threats to our national security. If the government identifies serious security concerns with individuals seeking visas, we do not want them on campus. However, as the start of the fall semester approaches these students and their sponsoring U.S. colleges and universities are becoming increasingly concerned that a broad application of Presidential Proclamation 10043 is causing delays in students' academic careers and critical projects.

When the proclamation was issued in 2020, the State Department provided a briefing for higher education associations regarding its implementation, specifically from representatives of the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs, the Office of Consular Affairs, and the Bureau of International Security and Nonproliferation. We ask once again for a briefing from State so we can understand the implications of PP 10043 on our international students and scholars. We look forward to continuing to work with you to ensure our international students can travel to the United States for the upcoming academic year.

Sincerely,

Ted Mitchell President
